

VisitingTeaching.net Treat Tuesday Tags #10 for Home Teachers

"The small and simple things you choose to do today will be magnified into great and glorious blessings tomorrow."
Ann M. Dibb, "Be Thou an Example of the Believers," Liahona, May 2009

Your Home Teachers

"Remember, it is the cleansing power of the Atonement that makes it possible for us to be virtuous."
Mary N. Cook, "A Virtuous Life—Step by Step," Ensign, May 2009

Your Home Teachers

"member missionaries—both you and I—are the shepherds, and the full-time missionaries..."

L. Tom Perry, "Bring Souls unto Me" Ensign, May 2009

Your Home Teachers

"Change and Challenges are part of God's plan. By design this mortal ~~e~~xistence is a time of testing or a time "to see if they will do all things whatsoever the Lord their God shall command them"
Steven E. Snow, "Get On with Our Lives," Ensign, May 2009

Your Home Teachers

"Whatever the rites... invite you to begin making the spiritual preparations so you can receive the blessings available only in the holy temple. Please cast away the things in your life that stand in the way."

David A. Bednar, "Honorably Hold a Name and Standing," Ensign, May 2009

Your Home Teachers