

anxiously engaged

"We need women to set an example of righteousness. We need women to be 'anxiously engaged in a good cause.' We need to live so that our lives bear witness that we love our Heavenly Father and the Savior Jesus Christ and that we will do what They have asked us to do."

Barbara Thompson, 2nd counselor in the Relief Society general presidency
("Now Let Us Rejoice," Liahona & Ensign, Nov. 2008)

© 2009 VisitingTeaching.net

anxiously engaged

"We need women to set an example of righteousness. We need women to be 'anxiously engaged in a good cause.' We need to live so that our lives bear witness that we love our Heavenly Father and the Savior Jesus Christ and that we will do what They have asked us to do."

Barbara Thompson, 2nd counselor in the Relief Society general presidency
("Now Let Us Rejoice," Liahona & Ensign, Nov. 2008)

© 2009 VisitingTeaching.net

anxiously engaged

"We need women to set an example of righteousness. We need women to be 'anxiously engaged in a good cause.' We need to live so that our lives bear witness that we love our Heavenly Father and the Savior Jesus Christ and that we will do what They have asked us to do."

Barbara Thompson, 2nd counselor in the Relief Society general presidency
("Now Let Us Rejoice," Liahona & Ensign, Nov. 2008)

© 2009 VisitingTeaching.net

anxiously engaged

"We need women to set an example of righteousness. We need women to be 'anxiously engaged in a good cause.' We need to live so that our lives bear witness that we love our Heavenly Father and the Savior Jesus Christ and that we will do what They have asked us to do."

Barbara Thompson, 2nd counselor in the Relief Society general presidency
("Now Let Us Rejoice," Liahona & Ensign, Nov. 2008)

© 2009 VisitingTeaching.net